Ruckus in the garden

Nan is in the garden. She has beetroot seeds and pumpkin seeds. She puts them in containers of moist brown soil.

Pop is weeding. "My bright flowers are bursting into bloom. Perfect."

Nan spots a rabbit munching the carrots. She growls, flapping her arms. The rabbit speeds off in fright.

"No!" groans Nan. "That flapping has strained my back!"

"Perhaps have a sleep on the blanket," Pop says.

When Nan has had her sleep, Pop picks her a sunflower.

"How sweet," says Nan. "I love sunflowers."

Then, plop, plip, plop! Three green caterpillars drop out of the sunflower.

"But I do not love creeping critters!" she says.
